Miss Grace Morgan of Prospect street is assisting in the clerical work at the granite manufacturers' office for a few days.

The ladies of Clan Gordon will hold their regular meeting Tuesday evening, July 1, at 7:15. Balloting and initiation.

The Barre City band will not give the usual Wednesday night band concert this week, but will give a concert Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Booth of Hill street, who motored to Boston a week ago, returned to the city last evening after an enjoyable trip.

Elector Blair and son, Russell, went yesterday afternoon to West Chazy, N. Y., to pass three or four days with Mr. Blair's father.

U. Gilbert of St. Sylvester, P. Q., is a business visitor in the city. He will be here for a few days in the interests of granite quarrying.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brock, daughter, Janet, and son, George, left this noon for Bethlehem, N. H., where they will remain during the summer months.

The mission circle of the Universalist church, which was to hold its annual picnic and meeting Thursday afternoon of this week, has postponed the same.

A piano recital will be given in the Universalist vestry Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by Miss Dorothy Shaw, a pupil of Miss Blanche Spaulding. Everybody invited.

James Devers arrived in the city last evening from Camp Devens, having been discharged from the service. While in France he was decorated for bravery with a D. S. M.

Miss Marion Anker, who has been attending college at the University of Vermont, is at home with her mother, Mrs. Catherine Anker, of 65 Franklin street, for the summer vacation.

All Canadian soldiers are asked to assemble in uniform at Clan Gordon hall before the parade July 4. This notice also applies to veterans of the British and Italian armies.

A few applications are wanted for the 100- and 220-yard dash for the Fourth. See Mr. Shea at Shea's Shoe store. Apply early by letter or phone. Out of town runners are eligible to the race. Special prizes will be awarded. All applications must be in before Wednesday evening.

Yesterday an official notice went out to every Spanish-American war veteran in anticipation of Barre's homecoming celebration July 4. Veterans of Orange and Washington counties are requested to meet at the home of G. N. Tilden, 14 South Main street, Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Dave Spicer's "Shenanigans" of Montpelier are strong and are getting better training every day. They will be ready to meet Barre, which will be represented by one of the fastest teams in the state. Fans may look forward to one of the best baseball games witnessed in Barre in many seasons.

Lee Tracy, formerly connected with the McAllister and Kent Insurance agency of the Aldrich building, arrived in the city Sunday night after having been discharged from Camp Devens. A year ago he left with the 80th field artillery of the 7th division that traveled to numerous points in France.

Attention, discharged soldiers and sailors: There will be a meeting of Barre City Post, World War Veterans, at the granite manufacturers' rooms at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, July 1. At this meeting post officers will be elected and plans will be completed for the parade on the 4th. All who plan to be in the parade should be at this meeting, 7:30 sharp, Tuesday evening.

Reminiscent of old days of rivalry between Barre and Montpelier athletic outfits is the high pitch of interest exhibited in the baseball game to be played by the twin cities as a part of the homecoming celebration July 4. Stellar talent has been drafted for both teams and a warm tussle is in prospect. The teams play at the south end park, where the afternoon's events are to center.

The amusement committee for the July 4 celebration completed plans this morning for a novel attraction for Friday night. A dance will be held on the pavement between Merchant and West streets and for this occasion a 14-piece orchestra has been procured to furnish music. After the pavement has been thoroughly swept and corn meal will be distributed around within the space specified, which will be roped off. Everybody will have an opportunity to dance to their heart's desire without paying a cent; and they won't have to "shimmy" either, as the dance program set before the manager of the orchestra calls for a number of the old-time dances as well as the modern kind. Other preparations for the day include the honor roll, which will contain the name of every soldier and sailor of Barre and Barre Town who was in the service. The names will be placed in the panels of the arch. Almost every draftsman in the city has been assigned to paint his share of the names on the panels.

All clansmen will please leave their name cards at clan office on or before July 5 for six-monthly audit. Per auditors.

Regular meeting of Vincitla lodge, No. 10, K. of P., Tuesday night, July 1, at 8 o'clock. Business of importance. Barre.

Secretary of State Harry A. Black has suspended the chauffeur's license of Elvin V. Boulds of Island Pond, held to operate any automobile. The cause is due to the violation of the state laws governing the operating of a car upon which there were temporary number plates. Officers for some weeks have been checking up the operation of these cars with the result that many reports are being made to the secretary of state. The operating license of Wilfred Bileau of Rochester has been revoked because of a conviction in court upon the charge of being intoxicated while operating an automobile. Mr. Black is investigating the M. Gomez accident, of which mention was made Monday, with indications that a suspension of the license may take place.

The officers this morning received notice of a Chalmers automobile stolen in White River Junction last night. It is a New Hampshire car, register number E 20194, with a dark body and yellow wheels.

Ortha C. Williams of Corinth has moved to Montpelier and will have rooms at Percy Bailey's on State street. He has been employed as agent for the Connecticut General Life Insurance company under the supervision of the general manager of the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whittier, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Whittier, have gone to their home in Cleveland, O. They were married 10 years ago, but friends who were at the station embarrassed them by a shower of confetti, causing the persons waiting for the train to wonder a good deal.

Chief Justice John H. Watson filed another entry with the clerk of the supreme court Monday afternoon. It was in the Chittenden county case of Delia Adeline Trask vs. John J. Kelleher, appealed from Burlington city court. This case was heard in 1916 and came to summary court on exceptions, where it was heard and in January, 1918, assigned to Justice Haselton. It was one of the cases left when Justice Haselton resigned and upon the re-arrangement was assigned to Chief Justice John H. Watson, who reviewed the case with the result that the following entry was made Monday, "judgment affirmed."

Nothing new has developed in the rumor that Governor Clement might receive Governor Warren, who is under sentence of execution at the state prison next week. As far as could be learned at the governor's office this morning, Gov. Clement is expected in the city to-night to attend the board of control meeting which occurs to-morrow, when further consideration of salaries will take place.

Miss Jessie Watson, who has been ill for several weeks, resumed her work to-day in the office of the deputy commissioner of weights and measures.

Very little celebration of the closing of the saloons for the dry period occurred in Montpelier Monday evening, only one man being arrested. He was Thomas Barnes of Hartland, who in city court this morning admitted he was intoxicated and said he could not pay a fine of $5 and costs. He will spend 20 days in jail.

The second annual Epworth league institute of Vermont commenced Monday evening and will be in session this week at Montpelier seminary. The officers are: Dean, Rev. C. W. Kelley, Newport Center; bursar, Rev. S. G. Sutor, Ira-burgh; registrar, Rev. R. H. Moore, Randolph; book steward, Mr. Sutor; life work secretary, Miss Madge Warren, Montpelier; advisory committee, Rev. J. W. Hatch, Montpelier; William Shaw, St. Albans, and E. W. Sharp, St. Johnsbury. The faculty includes Rev. Robert Brumley, Chicago; Rev. George Spencer, Boston; Rev. M. A. Dawbar, Pike River, Pa.; Rev. Frederick Palladino, Newton Upper Falls, Mass.; Mr. Shaw, Mr. Hatch, Mr. Sharp, Prof. C. A. Davis, Mr. Kelley, Miss Bernice Wheeler, Boston, and Rev. G. W. Hilton, Springfield, Mass.

This morning Rev. W. G. Mead gave the morning watch service, which was followed by setting up drill and breakfast. The drill is in charge of Professor Davis. The Bible study was conducted by Mr. Mead, foreign missions by Mr. Palladino, evangelism, Mr. Hilton; home missions, Mr. Palladino; young men and Christian service, Mr. Arnold; rural methods, Mr. Dawbar; recreation and culture, Mr. Ganfield; junior league methods, Mr. Kelley; life service, Mr. Hilton.

H. L. Sparrow of East Montpelier to-day settled his account as administrator of the estate of Asa Lee Preston, late of Marshfield. Nettie P. Hutchins of Groton was appointed administratrix of the estate of Ernest E. Hutchins, late of Plainfield. Ralph W. Dunsmoor of Burlington settled his account as executor of the estate of Irving Wales, late of Barre City.

Miss Mary Kane has gone to Thompson's Point for a vacation from her duties as district nurse in Montpelier.

In Washington county court, the case of Dunham Brothers company of Brattleboro against G. Tomasi of Barre has been filed. It is general assumption to recover $300 book account. E. L. Scott is attorney for the plaintiff.

Railroad men on the Montpelier & Wells River railroad last evening reported that a heavy frost was felt in Plainfield, where the corn was cut down in some parts, all along the line of the railroad.

Judge C. S. Dana of Woodbury, who was in town to-day, stated that frost was felt in his town on Monday morning.

Welcome.

Mrs. Nextdoor—My daughter has arranged a piece for the piano. Old Grump—Good! It's about time it had a little peace.—Boston Transcript.

Prepare for the 4th of July

We are beginning to make up a big surplus stock of good Soda Water for the Fourth of July rush. As you know, aging in the bottle always improves the flavor of Soda Water when the water is pure, as ours always is. July Fourth comes on Friday; therefore, it will be a good plan for you to get your order in for a couple of cases, at least a few days in advance; as our entire delivery force will be pushed to the limit on Thursday. You will double the joy of the national holiday by giving your family and friends all the good Soda Water they can drink. And remember this Fourth is going to be a stirring one, with the patriotic spirit fanned into a flame by the war-like state of the world. Order now.
